CHRISTMAS GIFT IDEA !! JOURNEY FEST 2010 WILL FEATURE CHARLIE DANIELS BAND !!

BROOKSVILLE, FL. - JOURNEY FEST is returning to Hernando County and is scheduled for February 26 – 28, 2010. The three-day musical event will showcase over thirty-five bands on multiple stages throughout the grounds of the Sertoma Youth Ranch in Brooksville.

Headlining the weekend event will be THE CHARLIE DANIELS BAND.

During a fifty-year career, Charlie Daniels has topped charts in Rock, Country, Pop and Christian, and garnered countless awards from the Country Music Association, Academy of Country Music, the TNN/Music City News Awards, and the Gospel Music Association. His signature song, "The Devil Went Down to Georgia" topped both country and pop charts, and brought international acclaim.

Some today's best Country, Southern Rock, Gospel and Christian artists will perform a full lineup of music for Journey Fest 2010. Saturday, February 27, will feature a complete day of family-oriented entertainment, including a Kids' Play Zone. A full array of food and craft vendors will be on hand, and other children's and family activities will make this a great family weekend. Closing out the festival on Sunday evening will be the performance by The Charlie Daniels Band.

The Sertoma Youth Ranch, 85 Myers Road, Brooksville, is located between I-75 and the Suncoast Parkway, and is also easily accessible from State Road 50 (Cortez Blvd.) via Lockhart Road or Spring Lake Highway (CR 541) in Hernando County. Tickets for Saturday and Sunday daytime events are $10.00 per person. Sunday full day and including the evening performance by The Charlie Daniels Band are $20.00 per person. Full weekend tickets are $40.00 per person.

Tickets for February 28th performances including The Charlie Daniels Band show may be purchased at the Hernando County Tourism Bureau office, located inside the lobby of the Quality Inn & Suites, 30305 Cortez Blvd., (SR 50 near I-75), Brooksville.
